

Francesco De Vita

Francesco De Vita

Francesco De Vita got his PhD at the University of Rome “Tor Vergata”. He got a PostDoc position at the KTH in Stockholm and then he moved at the Department of Physics in Turin, where he got a fellowship position. Now he is a fixed-term researcher assistant at Politecnico di Bari. His research interests are multiphase and complex flows, non-Newtonian materials and fluid-structure interaction.

Source URL: <http://www.waveabsorber.unito.it/en/content/francesco-de-vita>